ARTICLE 9 – RECOGNITION

- 9.1 The participant will make a study plan for their mobility before departure, the document must be signed by the sending and receiving institutions and by the student. The approval of this study plan will result in a Learning Agreement for Studies (Annex I) which is binding on all three parties. By signing the agreement, the participant undertakes to fulfil the chosen programme of study at the receiving organisation and to meet the minimum requirements for Erasmus+ outgoing students, i.e. to obtain at least 20 ECTS credits for each semester of study abroad in the case of long-term physical mobility, unless otherwise specified in the relevant faculty guidelines, and to obtain at least 3 ECTS credits in the case of short-term physical mobility.
- 9.2 Academic recognition and registration of obtained credits are governed by the internal rules and standards of the faculty at which the participant is studying. Recognition and registration of obtained credits is the responsibility of the departments, institutes and study units of individual faculties.
- 9.3 It is the participant's responsibility in the case of long-term physical mobility to ensure that any changes to the study contract are agreed by both the receiving and sending organisations within 5 weeks of the start of each semester.
- 9.4 The obligation to obtain the minimum number of ECTS credits at the host organisation as set out in Article 9.1 does not apply to students on doctoral programmes if sent abroad for the purpose of scientific research. In this case, the minimum requirements must be laid down in the Learning Agreement or specified in the annex.

By signing the Learning Agreement, the sending organization declares that:

- it agrees to the participant's chosen study programme at the receiving organisation,
- the chosen study programme does not conflict with the curriculum of the participant's study programme,
- ensures full recognition of the studies completed in the receiving organisation as a regular part of the studies in the sending organisation

Such recognition may only be denied if the participant fails to satisfy the requirements set by the host organization, or otherwise fails to meet the conditions required by the participating organizations for full recognition. In such cases, the participant may be requested to return the granted financial support. This provision does not apply if the participant's failure to meet the required study requirements has been caused by circumstances which he/she could not have influenced and which he/she reported to the ERASMUS+ programme coordinator at the sending organization.

Such recognition may be refused only if the participant fails to meet the requirements set by the receiving organisation or otherwise fails to meet the conditions required by the participating organisations for full recognition. In such cases, the participant may be requested to repay the financial support allocated. This provision does not apply if the participant is prevented from completing the study plan by 'force majeure' as described in Article 18. The participant is obliged to report such situations immediately to the Erasmus+ coordinator of the sending organisation.

ARTICLE 10 – END OF THE MOBILITY

10.1 After the mobility the participant shall deliver the following documents to the sending organization:

Confirmation of Erasmus Study Period (issued and signed by the receiving institution, stating the purpose and duration of the stay) – within 15 days after the end of the mobility.

If the Transcript of Records does not match the approved study plan at the host organization and the participant fails to meet the minimum requirements set out in the Learning Agreement, the sending organization shall assess the overall benefit of the mobility, and where appropriate, impose sanctions (e.g. repayment of part or all of the allocated financial support). ARTICLE 12 – ETHICS AND VALUES

12.1 The mobility activity must be carried out in line with the highest ethical standards and the applicable EU, international and national law.

The suspension will take effect on the day agreed by written notification by the parties. The agreement may be resumed afterwards.
- 14.2 Either party may — at any moment — suspend the agreement, if the other party has committed or is suspected of having committed:

 - b) serious breach of obligations under this agreement or during its award (including improper implementation of the action, submission of false information, failure to provide required information, breach of ethics rules (if applicable), etc.).

- 14.4 During the suspension, no financial support will be paid to the participant.
- 14.5 The participant may not claim damages due to suspension by the organisation.
- 14.6 Suspension does not affect the organisation's right to terminate the agreement (see Article 15).

ARTICLE 15 – TERMINATION OF THE AGREEMENT

- 15.1 The agreement may be terminated by either party if circumstances arise that render the execution of the agreement impracticable, impossible or excessively difficult.
- 15.2 In case of such termination, the participant will be entitled to receive at least the amount of the financial support corresponding to the actual duration of the activity period. The participant will have to return any remaining funds.
- 15.3 In the event of serious breach of obligations or if either party has committed irregularities, fraud, corruption, or is involved in a criminal organisation, money laundering, terrorism-related crimes (including terrorism financing), child labour or human trafficking, the other party may terminate the agreement through a formal notification.
- 15.4 The organisation reserves the right to initiate a court action if any requested refund is not voluntarily issued within the deadline notified to the participant by registered letter.

- 16.2 Any finding related to the agreement may lead to the measures set in Article 6 or to further legal action in the terms of the applicable national law.

ARTICLE 17 – DAMAGES

- 17.1 Each party of this agreement shall exonerate the other from any civil liability for damages suffered by them or their staff as a result of performance of this agreement, provided such damages are not the result of serious and deliberate misconduct on the part of the other party or his staff.

17.2 The National Agency of Czech Republic, the European Commission or their staff shall not be held liable in the event of a claim under the agreement relating to any damage caused during the execution of the mobility period. Consequently, the National Agency of Czech Republic or the European Commission shall not entertain any request for indemnity of reimbursement accompanying such claim.

ARTICLE 18 – FORCE MAJEURE

18.1 A party prevented by force majeure from fulfilling its obligations under the agreement cannot be considered in breach of them.
